LEGION RECEPTION BRINGS HOPE OF WORLD AMITY ALCOHOL LOSS TERMED MYTH

WITHDRAWAL OF LIQUID 1 YEAR AGO CLAIMED

Attorneys For Refining
Firm Refuse Comment
On Verbal Charge

"No alcohol vanished from the Point San Pablo warehouse. It was withdrawn on written order of the owners a year ago this month and shipped East."

That was the answer yesterday of the Philippine Refining Corporation to the damage suit for $8,235 brought by Mrs. Lenora Mason at Martinez, charging disappearance of 16,000 gallons of medicated alcohol which had been stored in the warehouse.

WAS "DRINKABLE"

The liquid easily could have been made drinkable by a simple treatment, according to vice-president of the Mason Distillery company of Sausalito.

Pillsbury, Madison & Sutro, attorneys for the warehouse people, characterized Mrs. Mason's suit and her husband's added claim that 31,000 gallons of alcohol were missing altogether, as an "internal dispute over ownership."

FIRM IN "CLEAR"

"The Philippine Refining Corporation of New York represented here by D. C. Dorwood, is entirely in the clear," said Alfred Sutro of the law firm. "The alcohol in question was stored in the warehouse by the Mason Industrial Alcohol company and the Mason By-products company, and last October was withdrawn on their written order and shipped east to Monarch Manufacturing company, Council Bluffs, Iowa. It was moved in the regular way, and there is nothing to it so far as I can see except possibly a dispute between the Mason people as to who owns the alcohol."

As to the verbal claims of Mason that the 16,000 gallons mentioned by his wife was missing, and that there was another stock of 12,000 gallons owned by the Bank of San Rafael and still another 3000 gallons owned by his wife—all unaccounted for—the attorneys said they would meet that issue when it was legally presented.

30 Women Enroll In "Gym" Class

Thirty women were present last night at the organization of the women's sport class in the Rosevelt Junior high school. H. L.
Seawright, director of physical education, who will be in charge of the classes, addressed the group on the plans of the organization.
Basketball and volleyball leagues will be formed, probably at the next meeting of the organization on Tuesday night. Considerable interest in sports has been shown by the women. The charter is still open for a limited number to join.

Death Summons Former Local Girl In China

Word has been received in Berkeley of the death in Shanghai, China, of Mrs. Anna Dunn, wife of Dr. Thomas B. Dunn and daughter of Mrs. Emma Skaale, of Berkeley. Death of Mrs. Dunn occurred September 6 according to the cablegram which carried no further particulars.

Before her marriage she was Miss Anna Skaale, and lived in Richmond, from 1910 until 1919, when she left to go to the Philippine Islands to marry Dr. Dunn.
Mrs. Dunn was connected with D.
W. McLaughlin Co., and East Richmond Heights Land Co. while in Richmond.

Shortly after her marriage to Dr. Dunn, the young couple went to China, where they have since resided; Dr. Dunn engaged in the practice of medicine in Shanghai.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Dunn leaves two children, Margaret, Emma, aged 3, and Mary, a trice-aged 7 months. Also surviving are her mother, three sisters, the Misses Bessie, Emma and Mabel Skaale, who has been connected with Richmond-Martinez Abstract & Title Co. for several years and a brother, Arthur Skaale of Oakland.

$3,000 Given For Crash Injuries

MARTINEZ, Sept. 20.—With the law constraining his failure to respond a confession of liability, Superior Judge A. B. McKenzie today granted a $3,000 judgment to A. S. Vargem, Hayward service station owner, against Antonio F.
Comachio of Crockett for injuries
Vargem sustained in an automobile collision near Pinole on June 18.

Tony Wilzoro, named as a defendant in the same suit, made appearance through demurrer and the action against him remains to be tried.

Vargem sued for $25,000. Dr.
A. W. Morton, of San Francisco testified that Vargem sustained a fractured skull and arm injuries.
Vargem was a passenger in Com-machio's car and in his suit he charges recklessness of operation of both the machine operated by Commachio and the car driven by Wilzoro. Another passenger in Com-machio's machine, Joseph Vasconcellos of Crockett, was fatally injured.

County Grocers Hold Meeting

The Contra Costa County Grocers' Association convened at Concord last night, where members were the guest of Concord merchants. An entertainment was furnished by representatives of S. F.
Association of Grocers. Questions relative to the state convention to be held in Santa Cruz next week were answered for the benefit of the delegates from the Contra Costa association.

Richmond Club Will Have Broadcast Of Gene—Jack Battle

Radio returns of the Chicago fight will be heard by those attending the chicken dinner to be given by the Richmond club at the Richmond clubhouse, Thursday, September 22, at 6:30 o'clock. A radio set will be installed for the occasion. Reservations for the dinner must be made this morning, and can be placed with Mrs. J.
Maxwell, who is in charge, or with any member of the club.

THREE YOUTHS SOUGHT IN ALL OF BAY CITIES

Screams Heard As Auto
Sped Away Last Clue
To Whereabouts

PITTSBURG, Sept. 20.—Not a trace had been found today of Doris Turner, 15 year-old Pittsburg school girl, who is believed to have been kidnapped by three youths whom she met at a dance in Martinez last Saturday night.

AUTHER FRANTIC

The mother, Mrs. Samuel Turner, was frantically aiding the authorities in a search of lodging houses in the Eastbay cities, on the theory that the girl was being held a prisoner in one of the centers of population.

3 YOUTHS SOUGHT

The last clue to the girl was in the fact that her mother heard a girl scream outside the Turner residence early Sunday morning and saw a car drive away with lights out. The three youths sought are known as Lem, Mack and Jerry.

MARIN GIRL "DOPED"

SAN RAFAEL, Sept. 20.—Marin county authorities today were investigating the mysterious case of a girl found on the Greenbrae road near here, unconscious from supposed "knockout drops."

Two similar cases of girls being
"doped" by male acquaintances have been reported during the last 10 days.

Two men are said to have taken the girl for an automobile ride after attending a dance, but the girl, Miss A. E. Williams, 24, employed by the telephone company has steadfastly refused to reveal their identity.

She was found between 4 and 5
a. m. Sunday by an automobile party consisting of Mr. and Mrs.
Carl Plov and Mr. and Mrs. R.
Stram, who were on their way from San Rafael to Sausalito when about five miles from San Rafael.

Fractured Skull Sustained By Local Man

L. H. Criss, 508 Pullman avenue, sustained serious injuries yesterday afternoon, when he was struck by a street car at Cutting boulevard and Pullman avenue, according to a police report.

Particulars of the accident could not be learned last night as there were no witnesses and Criss was in an unconscious condition. Whether he was boarding or alighting from the car and was knocked to the pavement could not be learned.

He was taken to the Abbott Emergency hospital and later removed to the Cottage hospital where it was found that he sustained concussion of the brain, injuries to the hip, fractured ribs, lacerations about the forehead and right eye an abrasion about the body.

While he was still unconscious last night and his condition was declared to be serious, hopes for his recovery are held. Dr. W. S.
Lucas is the attending physician.
Ben Larson, motorman of the northbound car No. 323, was unable to account for the accident.
Criss, a worker, resides near the scene of the accident.

F. Stockle of 517 Pennin-sylvania avenue, has left for a two weeks' vacation trip in the Pacific Northwest with his brother-in-law,
Fred Vincent of San Francisco.

Helene Costello Engaged

ENGAGEMENT of Helene Costello was announced in Hollywood by mother of the young movie star. But the lucky lad isn't Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., as was rumored, but John Regan, son of Col. James

Realtors Survey Ball Park 16 Times To Down Kiwanis

The Richmond Realtors demonstrated yesterday that selling real estate is good training for a baseball game. The hours of showing prospective property buyers over subdivision came in handy for them and the way they covered ground at First street park while playing the Kiwanis team was something they could be proud of —even though no sales were made.

Sixteen times they went around the property while the Kiwanians, less experienced in the subdivision field, had to content themselves with nine runs.

LINE-UPS HAY WIRE
Both teams drove the scorekeep-ers crazy trying to keep track of the line-up. Just as soon as it looked as though each team had settled on its players, a change in the line-up was made and the scorekeepers broke another pencil.

The Realtors were first at bat and knocked Doc Root for six runs. The Kiwanians then put Bolt in the box and later Anderson but it was hard to hold those subdivision men once they got started.

Jack Burg started on the mound for the Realtors and lasted only for the Kiwanians got eight runs off him in the third inning. Then Davis took the box and held the Kiwanians for the last inning.
The Kiwanis team was just getting started.

Ban On Grade Crossing Held Justifiable By Traffic Expert

Richmond City Officials
Attend City Conclave
In Sacramento

Richmond city officials including Mayor Mattie Chandler, City Manager James A. McVittie, City Engineer Edward A. Hoffman and City Clerk Arthur C. Faris, attending the annual conference of the League of California Municipalities at Sacramento, which opened yesterday.

WELCOMED BY GOVERNOR
The delegates were welcomed by Governor C. G. Young and Mayor
E. E. Gold.

Recommendations for effective control of traffic at grade crossings to eliminate accidents were made by Chief Engineer A. G.
Mott of the Railroad Commission before the department of engineers' councilmen and street superintendents.

HELD JUST EXPENSE

He said that while the cost of eliminating the 12,500 grade crossings in the state would amount to about $1,250,000 the benefit of eliminating about one-fifth of them the worst ones at a cost of about $125,000,000 would justify such action. Mott added, however, that while such an expenditure might be theoretically possible, he doubted if the municipalities would seriously consider it, feeling that individual benefits would not be commensurate with the cost.

SUGGESTS TAX

Mott suggested several ways in which a portion of the burden might be spread over the people as a whole by state bond issues, gasoline tax or appropriations from general state revenue.

He pointed out that during the last 15 years accidents at grade crossings had increased 110 per cent, whereas travel over the

Lions Hear Talk On Water Bonds

Cooperation of the Lions club for the bond issue to be voted on in November, to provide a publicly owned water system in this district was urged by Dr. George C. Pardee, head of the East Bay
Municipal Utilities district yesterday. Particulars in the situation were gone into in detail by the water chief.

A report on the Lions trip to Sausalito last Saturday was given by H. H. Mylander and entertainment was provided by Elmer Herling, accompanied by Miss Lucille Shelley. Bob Smith in discussing the baseball game between the Lions and the Realtors next Friday, declared that club support would be needed, and asked that members attend the game in a body.

The club rose in tribute to the late City Councilman E. J. Garrard, member of the Lions board of directors, as adjournment was taken.

William Johnson Is Laid At Rest

Last rites were conducted for William S. Johnson from the Wilson and Kratzer chapel yesterday afternoon. Johnson was formerly employed in Richmond and was a member of the Richmond Machinists' union, under whose auspices the rites were conducted.
He passed away at the age of 70 years last Saturday. A widow survives him.

Brotherhood Of Man Is Ideal Stressed By World War Chieftains

ALL PARIS UNITES IN TUMULTUOUS RECEPTION TO DOUGHBOYS OF STIRRING CONFLICT

PARIS, Sept. 20.—From the same platform today, three of the great military figures of the World War, General John J. Pershing, Marshal Foch and General Gouraud, military governor of Paris, joined in a stirring plea for world peace.

They spoke at the second official session of the American Legion convention, a gathering that was transformed into a Franco-American love feast as World War leaders pledged everlasting friendship between the two nations.

GALA RECEPTION

The Legionnaires were glowing with the warmth of the reception accorded their parade by Paris boulevardiers yesterday, and attended today's session prepared to manifest their appreciation for everything French.
They almost tore the roof off the palace with their tumultuous cheering for the French war heroes and for General Pershing, as well, and once again the excitable Parisians enjoyed the spectacle of seeing and hearing a group of 20,000 men more vociferous in their enthusiasm even than themselves.

FOCH PRAISES VETS

Marshal Foch was the first speaker. A striking figure in his brilliant uniform, resplendent with medals and decorations, he stood smiling on the speakers' stand until the ear-splitting applause had subsided.

The winning of the World War,
Marshal Foch told the veterans,
was due to "perfect understanding and co-operation among the allied leaders. These same qualities, he continued, would go far toward the ultimate goal of all humanity—peace, fraternity and industry."

General Gouraud spoke next.
He paid a stirring tribute to the part played by America in the great war.

"No one can forget, least of all mothers and wives, that without the entry of the Americans into the war, French blood would have continued to flow much longer,"
he declared.

PERSHING FOR PEACE

Thunderous applause greeted General Pershing as he stood on the rostrum to deliver his address.
"As fighting men," the general declared, "we believe that war should be rendered impossible at."

Marcus Trial In District Court Is Under Way

The trial of Harry Marcus, of Richmond, Contra Costa county charged with "concealing his assets from the trustee in bankruptcy and perjury, started in the United States District Court yesterday.
Marcus filed a schedule of his liabilities and assets. Marcus failed to state in this schedule that he had sent a large amount of merchandise to a local broker, who sold it on consignment and sent Marcus a check for $1,250. It is claimed.

The trial is before Federal Judge A. F. St. Sure. The government is represented by Edgar Bonseil and the defense by Bert Schlesinger.

Several Richmond people have been called as witnesses.

'Y' CAMPAIGN ATTAINS $2348

Almost one-fourth of the $10,000 goal was gained last night in the campaign to build the Y. M. C. A. for maintenance funds for 1928-29.
The 177 pledges gained by the committee of over fifty men, added up a total of $2348. The three superintendents of "plants" A, B, C, of the committee announced the following results of each
"plants" work yesterday:

Plant A, 71 pledges	$962
Plant B, 27 pledges	$646
Plant C, 79 pledges	$740

TOTAL for day

The committee is organized like the force of a factory, and the three "superintendents" are Clyde Parker, Dr. W. W. Giberson, and E. L. Scofield. The entire committee met last night at the Y. M.
C. A. building.

The campaign will continue until next Friday, according to Charles Renwick, manager.

Fellowship Told Of Mission Of The Church

In the parlors of the First Christian church the members of the Church Fellowship last night held their first meeting after the summer vacation. It was Ladies Night and a large attendance was present. Dinner was served by a committee of the ladies of the church, headed by Mrs. Pearson.

The speaker of the evening was the pastor, Rev. Aldis Webb, who chose as his topic: "The Functioning of the Church in an Age of Progress." A program was presented which included solos by Miss Madge Turner, violin solos
by Ansel Mansfield and guitar selections by Mrs. Carson Wright. The remainder of the evening was spent socially and in playing games.

Dual Swim Meet Scheduled For Richmondites

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 21, 1927.

OUR WEALTH

Some measure of the growth of wealth in the United States can be found in a recent statement by the Wall Street Journal analyzing the reports of many business concerns for the year 1926. The cash and investment holdings of 129 concerns analyzed totaled two and a quarter billion dollars, and the significant fact is that this was an increase of nearly $300,000,000 over the year 1925. The working capital of the same concerns increased a little over $450,000,000 during the same period.

The list was headed by the United States Steel Corporation, with the Standard Oil of New Jersey, coming second, the General Electric third and the General Motors fourth. There were eleven companies in the list with aggregate cash and security holdings approximating a billion dollars in each case.

And the wealth of the small concerns in America and of individuals from the highest to the lowest is increasing proportionately. One has only to visualize the number of new business and office and public buildings, of comfortable new homes in every city and town and of the endless procession of new automobiles to know that this is true.

And the Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph also makes a point when it declares that, "Naturally this great wealth is envied by people of other countries which have not been so prosperous. Some of these people would be quite willing to compel the Americans to give up part of their possessions. Force has often been used for purposes of this sort. This is one of the great reasons for maintaining a protective army and navy adequate to keep our possession at home and in our own care."

Americans are against any war of aggression but will defend their country to the last man, and the last dollar. And the man who opposes adequate protection in the way of what is really military insurance is too short-sighted to be a good American in the best sense of the word no matter how well meaning he may be.

New York is not the only city where policemen shoot innocent bystanders. Chicago policemen, shooting at a crazed Mexican, scored targets on the legs of three outsiders before a post office employee helped them out by killing the Mexican. The Chicago police seem to be about the only gunmen in that city who don't get the man they go after.

Maybe when President Coolidge sees the reconstructed White House he'll change his mind.

Everyone seems to agree that the first airplane ride is much less disagreeable than the first olive. General Dawes goes no further than refusal to take down his lightning rod.

How To Earn Money!

I am very clever with the needle and am an artist. I had a whole page of baby bonnets in one of the magazines recently and there is nothing that I would enjoy more than making dainty bonnets for the shops. Would you try the department stores or the specialty shops?

CHRISTINE P. I would try both, although I have found the specialty shop a better market for this type of article—especially when exclusiveness and not quantity is the aim. I know a girl who makes a specialty of exquisite bonnets for new-born babies—gift bonnets. And she makes the loveliest little hat-boxes to go with them. She is not an artist, but she gets plain boxes, covers them with pretty paper and decorates them with pretty cut out flowers or cunning nursery motifs. With your ability as an artist you could do even more.

I have a special knack for sewing for little boys. I have two boys 4 years old and their clothing clothes are the object of much comment. My friends come to me for help with their sewing and I am only too glad to help them. But we are trying to help a home and things have not gone so well with us lately. I would like to earn a little money at home.

Sewing for little boys is truly an art and if you are so gifted there is no reason why you should not turn your talent into cash. I believe your friends will be only too glad to help you build up a nice little business. If I were you I would have some dainty little announcements printed and sent them out to all possible customers. Mention the fact that you are specializing in smart togs for little men. Every mother knows that boy's clothes, regardless of their simplicity, are far more difficult to make than girls.

I made up a box of jellies and sent them to New York, where I thought the field greater than in my home city. They were returned to me as unsalable. Since then I have disposed of them here at home, but I am greatly disappointed, as I expected better prices for them.

W. T. R. You were not very definite in your letter, and I do not know if you sold at a small profit or at a loss. It is quite true that the field is wider in the larger cities, but it is also true that competition is keener and the field proportionately more crowded. It is far better to start in your home town or in some nearby city and enlarge your scope as you learn the rules of the game. In making jellies for market, neat glasses or containers with tops guiltless of rust are imperative.

Mrs. Sarah Spence will answer all questions on "How to Earn Money at Home." Address her care of this paper.

The Smartest Thing My Dog Ever Did

I have a little dog named Teddy. Whenever any one comes in he barks at them. One night as we were in bed the house caught fire. Teddy barked until he woke us, and we were saved.

RUTH SILVERMAN.

One day I was seated next to a young girl in the subway. She was reading the Saturday Evening Post, which interested me so that I was stretching my head over her shoulder. The young girl, growing very impatient and angry, handed me a nickel, saying "Buy yourself one." I very absent-mindedly put the nickel in my pocket. Can you imagine the embarrassment when I realized what I had done?

What Your FACE TELLS

© c. 1927- by Betty Morrison Psyd.

THE SOUL BEHIND THOSE SPIRITUAL EYES

Science tells us that all qualities, register in the face. The ability to understand mathematics, for instance, is seen in the temples. Energy is expressed in the cheeks and nose, while courage and determination are chartered in the chin. We find reflected in the eyes not a single characteristic but many qualities. As we look into these eyes we see faith, hope, love and devotion. Virtue marks the features as surely as vice. The eyes that look out of this picture reveal a deeply spiritual nature. One could not picture a man or woman who had such expression as capable of doing a deceitful or unkind act.

These eyes, with the upward curving upper lids and the beautifully arched brows, are religious eyes, which are often seen in the uplifted face of a saint or a madonna. There is no trace of sensuality or earthly desires in their depths.

These eyes are as open as the sun. They reflect the shining qualities of the soul—kindness, sympathy, honesty, patience, submission. They bespeak a soul "enduring all" beyond the confines of this material world. They are the eyes of the dreamer. They have been softened by their beautiful dreams. A man or woman having these eyes should mate with some one of spiritual nature to be happy. This individual possesses a fine disposition, he is stable in his affections, trusting, loyal. They look far things, hoping all things. Faith-istic world. They are the eyes of the dreamer. They have been softened by their beautiful dreams. A man or woman having these eyes should mate with some one of spiritual nature to be happy. This individual possesses a fine disposition, he is stable in his affections, trusting, loyal. They look far things, hoping all things. Faith-

Besides having the spiritual qualities and high morality, this individual possesses keen intelligence, and this, united with spiritual qualities, makes an ideal character. These splendid attainments should find expression in a life where there is more than a "job" such as an individual is naturally fitted for many professions. These spiritual and mental gifts are of value to the social worker, the reformer, the minister and the teacher. Persons having these eyes are frequently peacemakers. They may succeed in writing as they possess the ability to use words.

This is the surpassing character that needs no epitaph. Its fections, is dependable and trust-worthy.

YOUR MARRIAGE PROBLEMS

By Patricia Lee

"Life is like a game. From unseen sources the cards are shuffled, and the hands are dealt. Blind are our efforts to control the forces that, though unseen, are no less strongly felt. We may not like the way the cards are shuffled, but still we like the game and want to play, and through the long, long night will we, untrifled, play what we get, until the break of day."

SAYS THE WOMAN

Dear Patricia Lee:

I have read your column with interest for many months. I am a divorced woman. My whole life has been wrecked on the rocks of an unhappy marriage. Through no fault of my own I find myself alone, humiliated and hopeless in a sea of misery and unhappiness. Strange as it may seem, I still love the man whose faithlessness caused all my suffering, although he has since married another. At the age of 32 I find myself groping blindly, my health gone, my youth gone. But I am not willing to admit defeat. Somehow back of all this misery I feel the urge to carry on, to try and piece together the broken threads of life and start anew. But I am so miserable, so unhappy, I believe you will understand and will offer the friendly word of encouragement which I need so badly. ROSALIND

Of course you are not licked, Rosalind. You have all of life before you. The past is gone, and nothing you can do will ever recall it. So stop dramatizing the situation and try to forget. You will never know real happiness until you learn to live in the present instead of allowing your thoughts to dwell constantly upon the unhappy past. Hard knocks, suffering and sorrow surely test the soul at times, but there is no reason why you should feel that your whole life is wrecked. The first step toward a new life, you know, is a sincere determination to start anew. Then, if your health is in a run-down condition, take steps to build it up. When the body is reclaimed and made buoyant with health the natural change in your mental attitude will be a revelation to you. Then get a job that will keep you so busy that you will not have leisure to think whether you are happy or not. Put your heart and soul into your work and the chances are that you will find happiness without seeking it.

Louis K. has met with serious financial reverses. He has lost his job and has been out of work for many weeks. He feels that his wife should lend a hand and help him through this crisis by taking a job temporarily. Under the circumstances, I think he is acting most unwisely, especially since the wife is so opposed to the idea.

SAYS THE MAN

Dear Patricia Lee—

During the four months we have been married things have gone from bad to worse. When I married I was making $60 a week, and had invested some money in a little business. We had a nice apartment and were getting on well. Then I lost my job, the business failed, and I have been unable to connect elsewhere to advantage. I have told my wife in a nice way that she should go back to work until things are better. I think it is her duty to help me out, as I have no job

A. "Thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard; then take three balances to weigh and divide the hair."—Ezekiel 5: 1-4. Q. "Is it true that to him that hath shall be given?"—M. S., New York. A. "For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more abundance; but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath."—Matthew 13: 12.

Q. "Did Jesus raise any one besides Lazarus from the dead?"—T. E. Y., Bronxville, N. Y. A. "And He came and touched the bier; and they that bare him stood still. And He said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise."—Luke 7: 14.

Q. "Is Philadelphia mentioned in the Bible?"—E. J. N., Philadelphia. A. "And to the angel of the Church in Philadelphia write: These things saith He that is holy He that is true, He that hath the key of David, He that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth."—Revelation 3: 7.

Here's a new one—the "Monogram" frock with the Kerchief cuffs. It is of beige felt crepe with trimmings in a darker shade.

Reboux, always a step in advance of the mode, sends another. It is a quaint little two-tone hat of felt, with snug-fitting crown and novel brim cut in the form of a sickle.

Girls who affect the unusual are using an artful face power that alters naive sun tan to a shade more subtle and hinting of the olive cheeks of Spain.

at all at present. She flew into a terrible rage and refused. She is going to have a baby, but not for several months. Her attitude has caused my love for her to cool. I believe now that she just married me to get out of work. I am so discouraged I don't know what to do.

When you married, Louis, you took the responsibility of supporting a wife and making a home for her. You did this voluntarily, didn't you? Then don't blame the wife. Of course, if she wanted to help out it would be a different matter, but since she doesn't, you really should not censure her so severely. The very fact that she is expecting a baby alters the situation considerably and, under the circumstances, you would not be wise to insist upon her taking a job. You are not being very considerate. The chief cause of your unhappy state of mind, however, I believe is because you are out of a job. It has so upset you that you do not see the situation as it really is. When you are working again I believe you will realize that your wife is quite within her rights. And as for work, the girl who marries, cares for a home and raises a family has a twenty-four-hour-a-day job. For the present, if I were you, I would take any kind of a job until you can find something better.

MONTE CRISTO HOLDS BOARDS AT CALIFORNIA

History repeats itself, even in the production of motion pictures. When the critics and public heaped praise upon the combination of John Gilbert and Renee Adoree after the triumphant presentation of "The Big Parade," few recalled the fact that both of these noted screen artists first won fame while playing opposite each other in a motion picture several years ago. This was "Monte Cristo," based on the celebrated novel by Alexandre Dumas, which will have a revival presentation at the California Theatre commencing today.

In this picture, too, Miss Adoree plays the role of a French girl, not of the same type, but still of the same character as the individual she characterizes in "The Big Parade." Gilbert, in the role of the Count of Monte Cristo, not only is seen as the youthful lover, which type has made him an idol in recent pictures, but he also demonstrates his marvelous versatility by depicting the count as an aged man, who defies the world in his quest of vengeance.

Probably the highest price ever paid for the right to publish four words from a published work was given by William Fox to the estate of the late James O'Neill, actor, for the privilege of using the line "The world is mine." In the motion picture version of Alexandre Dumas' story, "The Count of Monte Cristo," this line is indissolubly associated throughout the world with the play and Fox, when he decided to produce this story, decided to use it regardless of cost.

William Fox is reviving "Monte Cristo," not only because of the merit of the photoplay and marvelous story, but because of the popular demand for the John Gilbert-Renee Adoree combination, which has proved so successful in pictures released during the past six months. Others in the cast include Estelle Taylor, William Mong, Robert McKim, Ralph Cloninger, Spottiswoode Aitken, Geo. Seigman, Virginia Browne Fairie, Gaston Glass and Francis McDonald.

Other features include "Who's Afraid," a Lupino Lane comedy; "International News"; and Larry Canelo, at the organ.

$100,000; its valuation is now over a quarter of a million. Many new units have been added to the home.

Another feature of the order is that the Supreme Lodge, and Grand lodge have impressed upon its membership everywhere to take an active part in Civic affairs. The result is that lodges in all sections of the state have supported the Boy Scouts, the Camp Fire Girls, and the Children's Shelter, and also find it advisable, when the interest of a community can be served, to boost the chamber of commerce in its activities. They now have entered the boy movement and are organizing everywhere, the Princes of Syracuse. The Princes of Syracuse is an organization for boys between the ages of 14 and 21 and it is similar to the De Molays. The organization now has eight palaces in California with over 300 members.

A bridge party was given last night by Miss Sara Spires for her sister, Mildred Spires, at her home 617 Fifth street.

RICHMOND HIGH ELEVEN SCORES ANOTHER VICTORY

HILL'S TEAM WINS BATTLE AT PITTSBURG

Coach Ivan Hill's Richmond high school eleven did their stuff yesterday afternoon at Pittsburg defeating the up-country boys by a score of 26 to nothing.

Scarsella, Williams, Baldwin, Bumgarner and Hill were the Richmond stars of the game gaining yardage and touchdowns. For the greater part of the game, the Oilers kept the ball in the Pittsburg part of the field.

Pittsburg has a strong team and expects to be county champions this year.

Scarsella made the first touchdown of the game in the first quarter by an off-tackle play, carrying the ball for 15 yards. Richmond was unable to score for the rest of the half.

In the third quarter, Baldwin, on a line play, carried the ball for six yards for the second touchdown. Williams on a completed pass ran ten yards for the third goal.

Clyde Bumgarner made the last score of the game by carrying the ball through center for three yards.

Hill, who is playing his first year of football as halfback intercepted a pass in the last few minutes of play and ran for forty yards following a good interference. He was downed a few feet from the goal and Richmond was prevented from increasing their score by the whistle.

Charles Jackson, center, was up to his stuff throughout the game.

Hill's men have showed their strength this year so far by annexing three victories—Oakland Tech, Berkeley and St. Helena and by tying the Oakland high school team. The 1927 season promises to be even greater than preceding years. They play a clean brand of football with no protests coming from opposing teams.

The lineup in yesterday's game with Pittsburg was as follows:

Jackson, center; Johnson and Fitzpatrick, ends; Fisher and Schaefer, tackles; Diamantini and Dunleavy, guards; Swensen and Scarsella, halves; Williams, quarter and Baldwin, full.

Ed Sullivan's SPORT WHIRL

WHEN DEMPSEY OPENED IN ONE

Perhaps the factor which enters most heavily into the reasoning of those who are afraid to send the bank roll in on Jack Dempsey against Gene Tunney is the memory of Dempsey's first round in that Sharkey scrap.

It will be a long time before even the warmest supporters of Dempsey forget the opening round of the Sharkey battle.

Dempsey, unable to untrack himself, was punched all over the ring. Sharkey hit him with lefts and rights and Dempsey reeled like a ship caught in heavy seas.

Jack Kearns admits that he turned his gaze from the ring rather than see Dempsey knocked cold. There are others who would have liked to have turned away, but couldn't. They were spellbound.

My only thought was one of pity for Dempsey. It seemed so terrible that a great fighter could go back so far and so fast.

Leo Flynn, in Dempsey's corner, showed an unnatural flush. Bill Duffy, steeled, stared stonily at the ring where Dempsey, his pal, was taking a cruel beating. Dempsey himself seemed to be in a daze as he shuffled in toward Sharkey. All powers of reasoning seemed to have deserted him. He made no effort to avoid punishment, simply waded forward under a merciless barrage of punches.

Sharkey pushed and shoved him around in the clinches contemptuously, stepping back out of each clinch to cut him with stinging left hand jabs.

Fight fans won't soon forget that first round. They hesitate to send the dough along on Dempsey while that memory is fresh in mind.

"COULDN'T RAISE A SWEAT"

Dempsey himself told me that he couldn't get going in the opening round and for rounds later:—

"I couldn't raise a sweat," says Jack. "I felt stiff and unnatural. I forgot to duck at Philly and in that first round with Sharkey, I didn't duck at all."

"About the third round, the sweat started pouring and I knew that everything was under control, as Joe Jacobs would say."

"Around the fifth I knew that I would win. I could feel Sharkey's courage draining right out of him. He was holding and he wasn't fighting back. He wanted to protect himself, whereas in the first rounds he wasn't worrying about protection."

The question is: Can Dempsey let Tunney get away to the same flying start which Sharkey availed himself of?

The answer is an emphatic "No."

If Tunney gets off in front, Dempsey will be in a bad spot. He will be a 1 to 15 shot.

Tunney can nurse a lead like nobody's business. He can keep Dempsey away with that straight left and prevent the ex-champion from getting in close. And unless Dempsey gets in close, his chances of winning are remote.

It appears that Dempsey's best bet is to warm up thoroughly in his own dressing room before going to the ring. His muscles must be limber and free from the tap of the bell and the only way to obtain that freedom is to put in some preliminary flacks in his dressing quarters.

HIS FIRST ROUND ONCE HIS BEST

The surest sign of Dempsey's age was manifest in his Sharkey fight.

That night he found the first round his toughest.

Look back to other Dempsey fights and recall the hectic first rounds he used to serve up to the talent.

At Toledo, he catapulted from his corner and almost knocked Willard senseless in a punch. Johnny Dundee was sitting near the ring that afternoon. "Willard's cheek puffed up like a balloon the first time Dempsey landed his left," says Johnny. Only Willard's tremendous strength enabled him to weather that blow. It would have knocked over a horse.

Dempsey was just as meteoric in the first round against Firpo. He rushed from his corner at the bell and although dropped for no count by Firpo's right-hander, the first punch landed, Dempsey had the giant from Argentina on the floor within half a minute.

When Dempsey was Jack the Giant Killer, that opening round was always the one which settled his fights. He struck unreasoning terror into the hearts of his rivals in that first storm of punches and they never recovered from it.

Even against the boxers Brennan, Miske and Gibbons, Dempsey scrambled their plan of attack in the opening rounds. They avoided a knockout, but Dempsey's flailing rush made them get on their bicycles. The only thing you can win on a bicycle is a six-day race.

FANS PROMISED REAL BATTLES AT EL CERRITO

There may be better shows to come, but Friday night's show looks good enough that the rabid fan need not wait for any better.

Tim Vahey and Tiger Bob Robinson are billed to go ten rounds in the main event and two six round bouts under them look like main events themselves.

With Oakland dark to boxing several weeks and no show this week there will be many a machine load that will make the trip to see the all star card that is billed Tim Vahey is to travel ten rounds. Vahey has not boxed that many rounds for some time. He rarely trains. Tim thinks he does not need training for bouts up to six rounds.

For this fight he has really jumped into earnest training.

Joe Abrew the Stockton iron man has long wanted to show here and to demonstrate that he can really fight. Abrew was formerly an Oakland boy. He has tried several years to get a start in Oakland. So for some time past Abrew has tried the second best thing, and that is to box as near to Oakland as he could, where his former school mates could see him. Abrew has been a big card for himself what they are like.

With Spark Plug Boyd of Seattle and Wildcat O'Brien of Boston in six rounds, Manuel Vasquez and Dave Rodriguez in four and Joe Viera and Johnny Pendon opening the show it will be a gala night of real fighting.

Benny Wagner will act as referee and Walter Yarwood, secretary of the California Boxing commission will be there as he has heard so much of the good shows here that he wants to really see them.

Abrew has been a big card for himself what they are like.

Ex-Champ

THE BURNING QUESTION in the minds of a goodly number of people right now is whether Jack Dempsey can make good in his attempt to regain the crown he lost to Tunney last year. He'll be the first heavyweight champ in history to succeed if he comes out on top Thursday night.

World Peace Stressed At Legion Meet

any future time.

This thought of the abolition of war is filling the minds of thoughtful men everywhere. Men are wondering why the code of honor that prevails among individuals cannot be made to operate between governments. If stealing and lying are wrong and illegal between men, why not between nations?

SOUNDS KEY NOTE

General Pershing was unusually warm in phrasing his gratitude for the magnificent reception which had been accorded the Legionnaires in Paris. Marshal Foch described him as "not only a great soldier, but a great man and a loyal friend."

"Only one cloud darkens this happy reunion," General Pershing said. "We can still read tears in the eyes of the widows and orphans of France who have suffered a martyrdom as lasting as it has been cruel. There are one million widows in France, and two millions orphans. Truly such woes appeal from tyranny to God."

WORLD PEACE OBJECTIVE

The Legion convention, the general said, is not only a reunion but the bringing together of two great peoples.

"The cultivation of mutual understanding and sympathy among nations such as exist between France and America, offers a true formula for the peace of the world," he said.

After receiving routine reports, the convention adjourned until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Next year's convention of the Legion seems virtually assured for San Diego. An informal understanding as to the selection of that city for the meeting place prevails from last year, and convention leaders say little opposition is expected on the question.

Attendance at today's session was cut down because of the many Legionnaires who are making tour of the battlefields, covering Verdun, Reims, St. Mihiel, Mont Faucon, and Chateau-Thierry. Nearly 2,000 have booked transportation for these tours.

LINDEMANN'S RETURN FROM CHURCH CONCLAVE
Rev. and Mrs. C. G. Lindemann of the Wesley Methodist church returned yesterday afternoon from the Northern California conference of the church held in Sacramento.

Princess Awaits Stork!

WILL IT BE A BOY OR A GIRL? That's the question that's occupying all Belgium, where it is generally known the Princess Astrid (above) is expecting to become a mother within a few weeks. A royal decree will fix the exact title to be borne by the new prince or princess.

Hopes Wane

MRS. PHILIP PAYNE, bride of the editor lost with the Old Glory, is still hopeful that her husband and his fellow flyers will be picked up.

Thimble Club Will Meet For An All Day Session

The Thimble club of the Neighbors of Woodcraft will meet for an all-day session at Odd Fellow hall today. Mr. Jessie George and Mrs. Julia Johnson are the hostesses for the day. In the evening the lodge will meet for a business session followed by an initiation. The entertainment for the evening will be in charge of the Past Guardian Neighbors with Mrs. Susie Mayfield in charge. Those who come to the meeting are asked to bring articles for the fish pond at the bazaar which will be given November 19.

WESLEY CIRCLE NO. 4 ENJOYS SOCIAL HOUR

Mrs. A. J. McNary of 1920 Chanslor avenue, entertained Circle No. 4, of the Wesley Ladies Aid society at her home yesterday afternoon. The early afternoon was spent taking up the business of the circle, and this was followed by a social hour. The hostess, Mrs. McNary, served refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting.

Realtors Survey Ball Park 16 Times To Down Kiwanians

ing started in the third and Doc Seawright said they would "have won the game, but the Realtors who have the sun under contract to furnish light, heat and sunshine for their property deals, gave the old boy the wink and he dropped behind Mount Tamalpais, ending the game in the fourth inning.

HINT LIONS-KIWANIS TREATY

No one would accuse Bob Smith, a loyal Lion, of pulling any underhand work even though the Lions are going to play the Realtors on Friday. BUT—it did look sort of funny seeing him catch for the Kiwanis team. Some of the onlookers even suggested that he was trying to find out the weak points of the Realtors' line to use against them later. And seeing him and Doc Root playing on the same team would lead anyone to believe they were friends instead of the bitter enemies they have been cracked up to be. Remember that fight they staged on Ninth street and Macdonald avenue just before their game for the War Mothers memorial? Some persons are beginning to doubt that the fight was real after seeing them fraternize last night. A Lion and a Kiwanian playing on the same team! Can you imagine that?

O. Ripley connected for a couple of three-baggers, the only big hits of the game, although there were plenty of two-sackers swatted. Crane, Settle, Hays and Evans all got two-baggers.

Caroline Rogerson Is Hostess To St. Edmund's Guild

Miss Caroline Rogerson was hostess to the St. Edmund's guild at her home, 517 Nevada avenue, yesterday afternoon. Cards were the diversion of the afternoon with the following winners: Mrs. J. G. Glennie, Mrs. M. P. Bush, Mrs. K. McVicar, Mrs. J. R. Esola, and Mrs. R. Tchesassy. The door prize was won by Mrs. H. Edwards. Miss Rogerson and a committee served refreshments to the guild at the close of the afternoon. The next meeting of the ladies will be at a luncheon to be given at 12:30 at the guild hall next Tuesday. Mrs. Glenn Adams will be in charge.

SHRIVER TO KANSAS

A. Shriver and his granddaughter, Miss Roma Rogers, left last night for Lyndon, Kansas. Shriver has made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Crabb of 715 Sixth street for the past year and a half. Miss Rogers will visit relatives in Topeka and Emporia during the winter.

SEWING CLUB OF O. E. S. WILL MEET ON 30th

Plan will be completed for a whist party to be held next Friday afternoon, when the sewing club of the Women's Benefit association meets at the home of Mrs. Murray of 610 Humboldt avenue, Mira Vista, today. The club will sew for the hope chest which the association is filling. The meeting will be an all-day affair, and those attending will bring covered dishes for luncheon.

The clean fuel

for the home

Every bit of gas is "scrubbed" before you get it
That is why it is so clean

The gas you use in your home for cooking, water heating and house heating is "scrubbed"—every bit of it—before it goes through pipes into your home.

In the scrubbing process the gas passes through a series of large tanks. It is washed with water and purified. The lampblack, tar and sulphur are scoured out. Only pure, washed gas passes into the network of mains.

That is why gas is such a clean fuel.

And it's all fuel. No waste—no soot—no work to use it. It instantly burns with intense heat from the moment you strike a match until you turn off the tap. It's always ready for use.

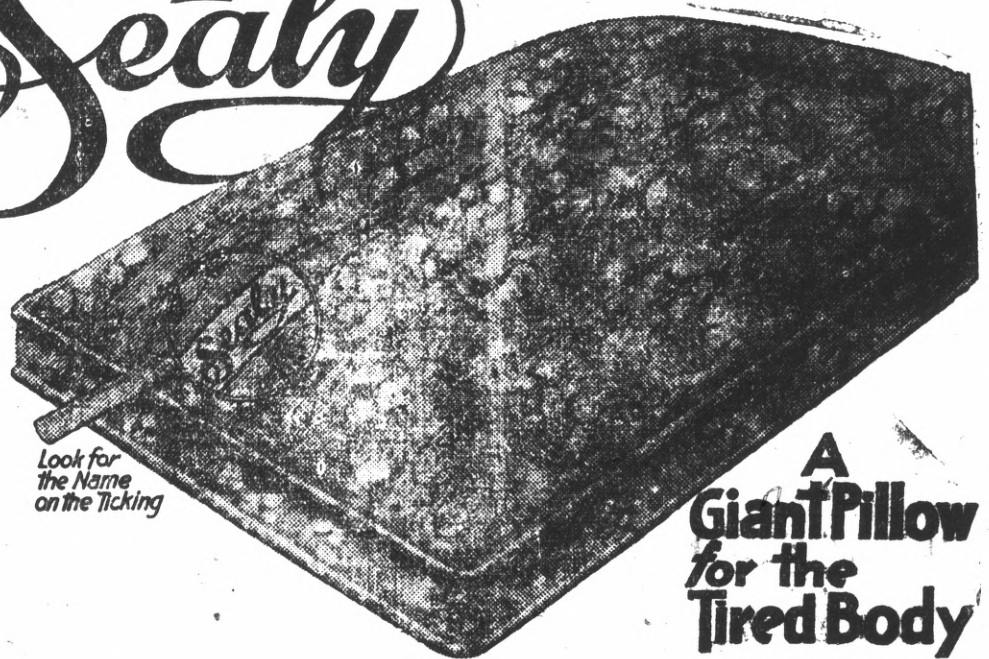

Because gas is so clean and convenient, a gas range, gas water heater or gas-fired furnace saves you time and effort.
